Everything has its season,

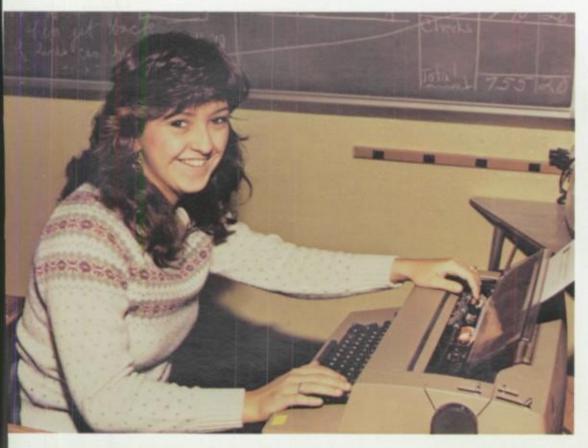

Everything has its time,

Show me a reason — I'll show you a rhyme.

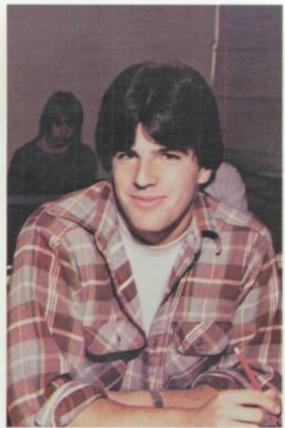

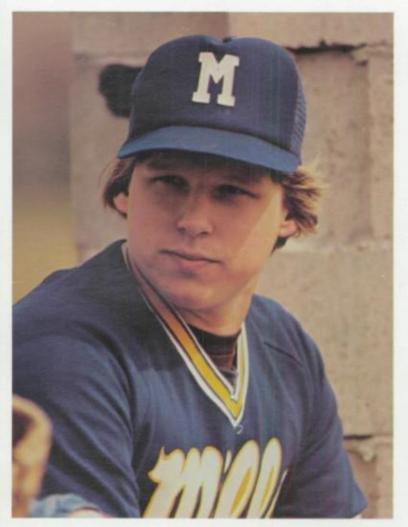

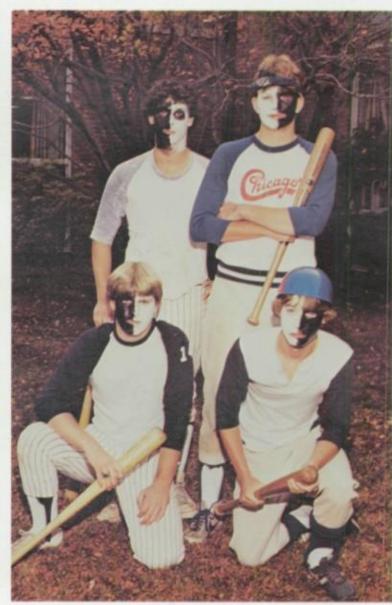

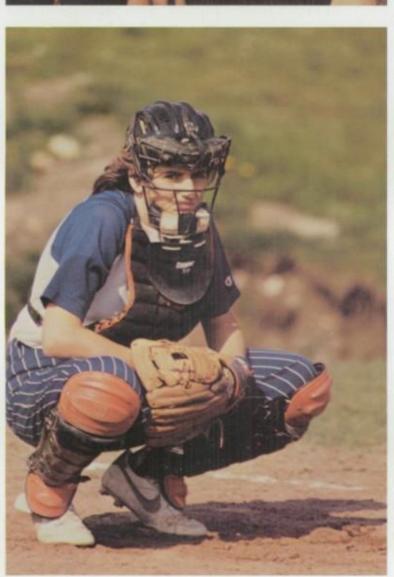

Cats on the window sill,

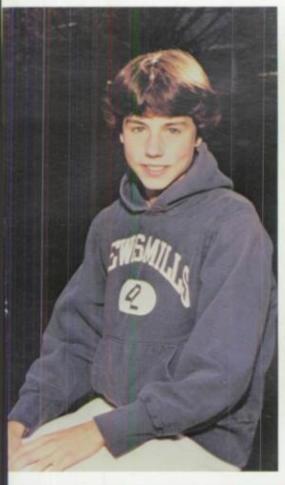

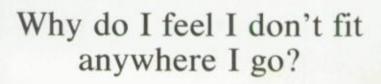

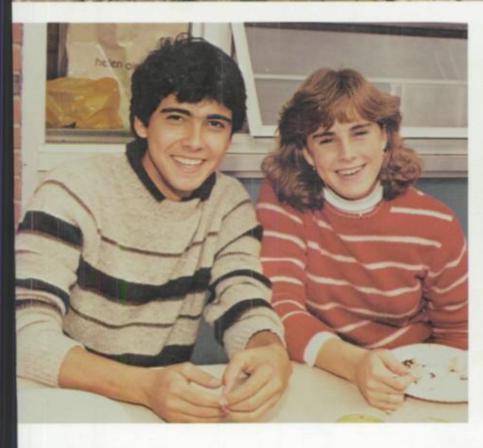

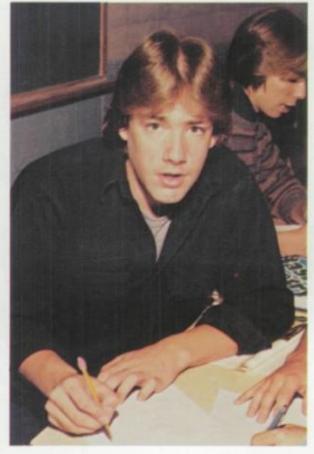

Rivers belong where they can ramble,

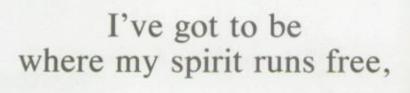

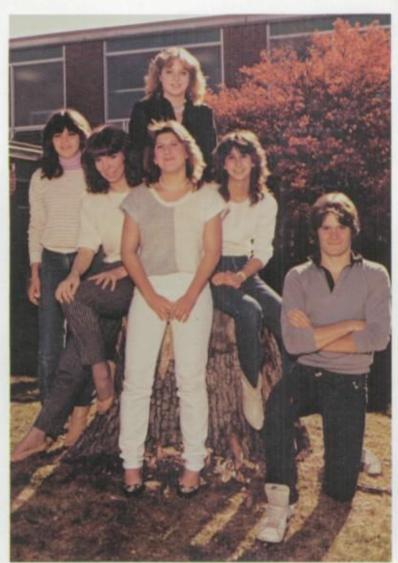

Eagles belong where they can fly,

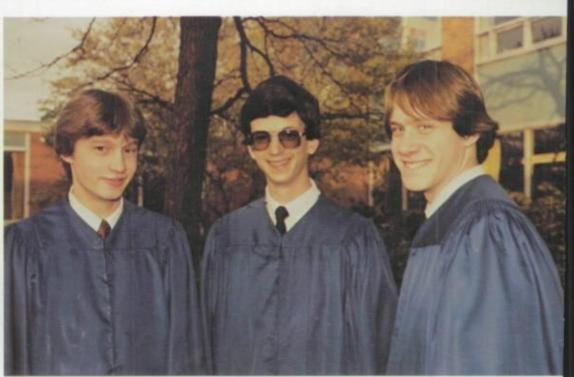

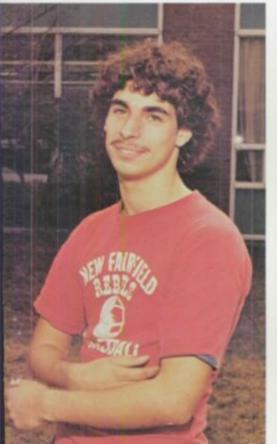

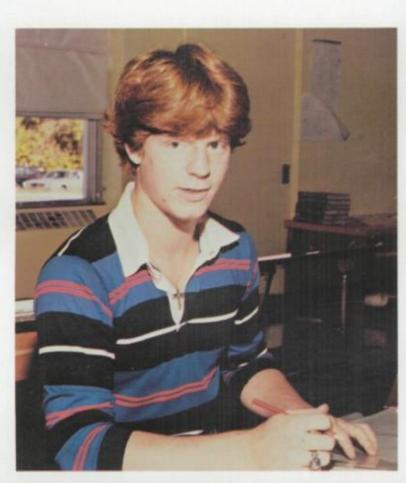

Got to find my corner of the sky.

Too many men settle for daydreams too small,

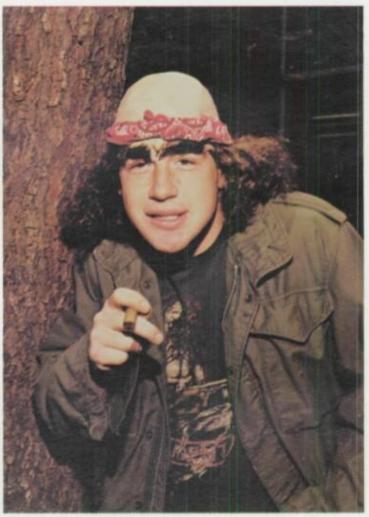

But I won't rest until I know I have it all.

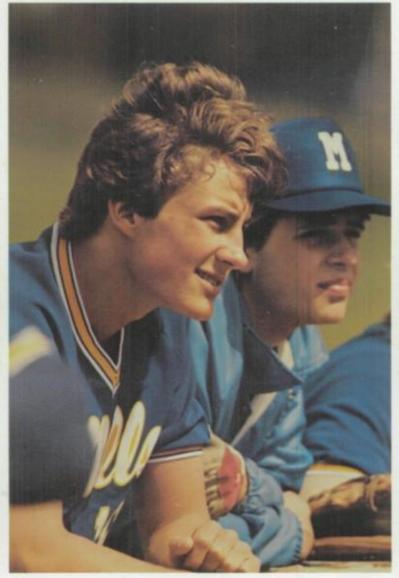

Thunderclouds have lightning,

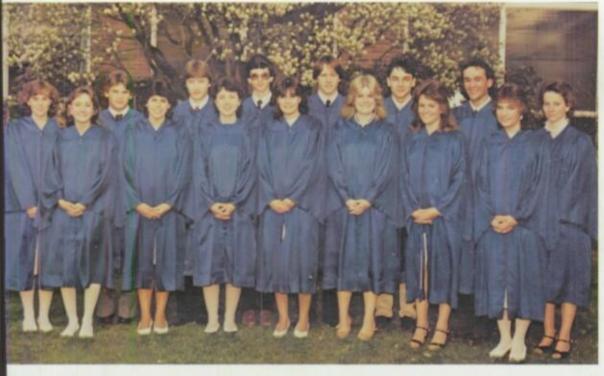

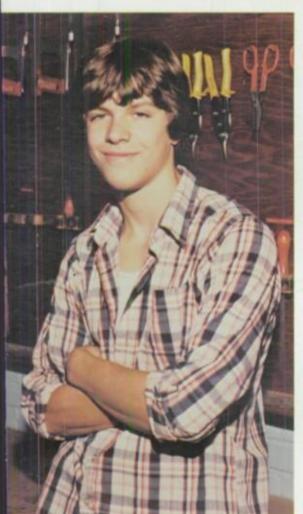

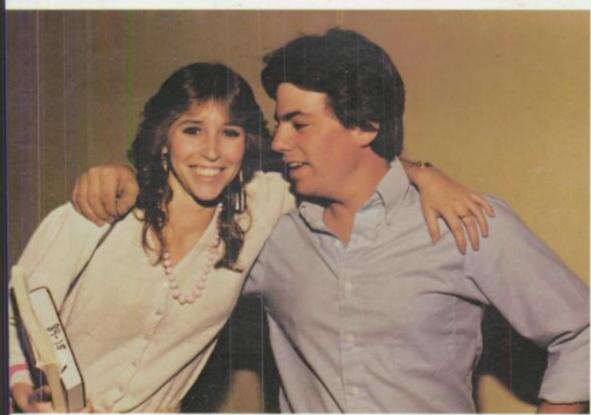

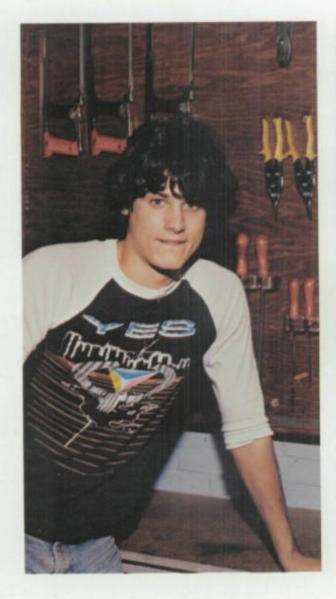

Nightingales have songs,

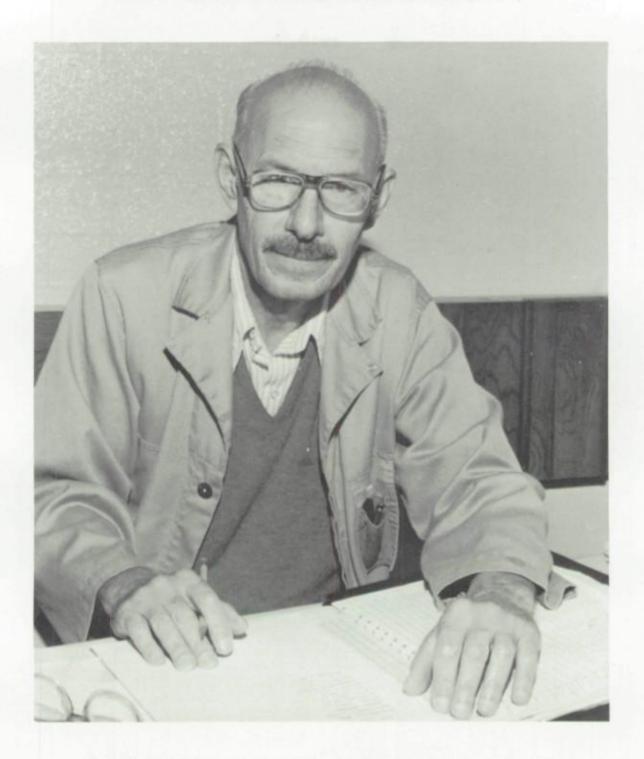

All I want is for my life to be something more than long.

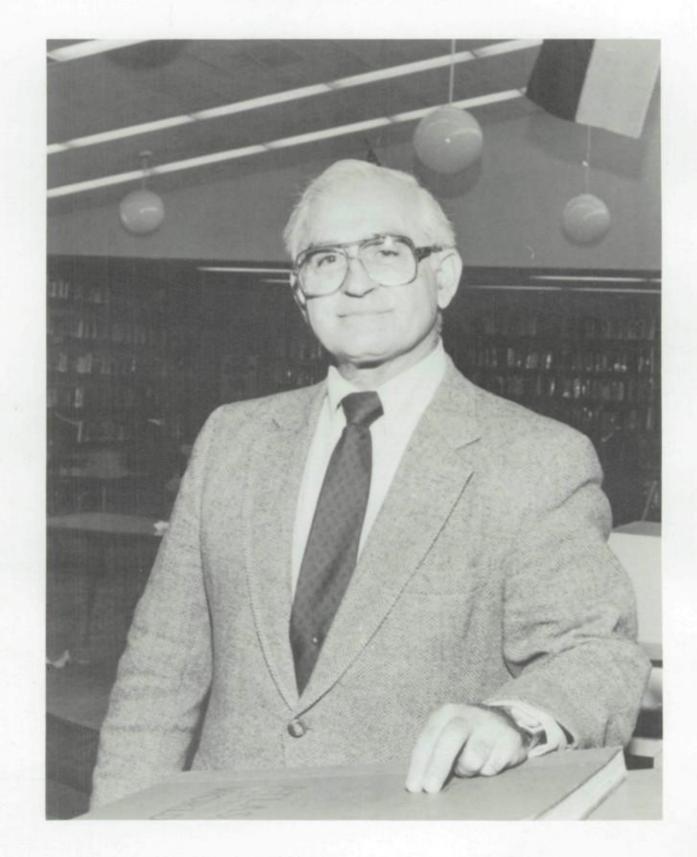

IN APPRECIATION

RAYMOND T. DEMEO

Lewis S. Mills High School and the Class of 1985 will always remember Mr. Raymond DeMeo. Throughout his 24 years at Mills, he was a prominent figure in the Industrial Arts Department and served as the first chairman. He was also president of the teachers' organization and advisor to various I.A. clubs, as well as being responsible for many students acquiring their drivers' licenses. Mr. DeMeo will always be remembered for his sincere concern for his students, his keen sense of humor, and his gentle kindness.

DEDICATION

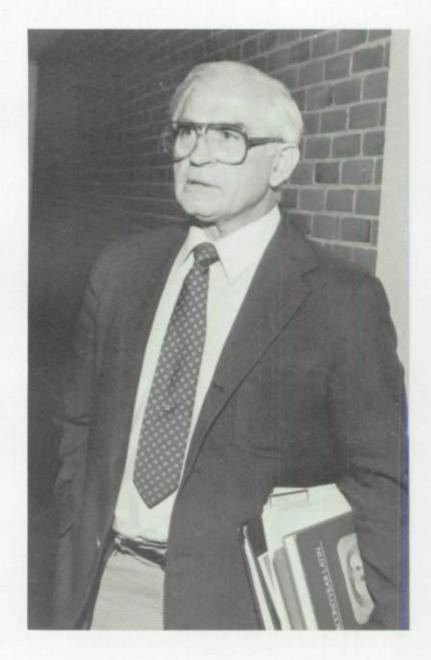

LOUIS J. CELOZZI

We, the Class of 1985, proudly dedicate the Sceptre Yearbook to Mr. Louis Celozzi. Foreign language students will always remember the countless French, Spanish, and Latin classes through which he successfully and triumphantly kept them alert. As advisor to the Lewis S. Mills Student Council, he has provided guidance and leadership for many school accomplishments. He has been a major force behind the American Field Service Chapter at Mills. But most of all, we shall remember him for his generosity and understanding. Mr. Celozzi, the Class of 1985 wishes you a happy and healthy future.

Sincerely, The Class of 1985

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To the Class of 1985:

It seems like only brief weeks have passed since you enthusiastically walked down Senior Hall on your way to the cafeteria homeroom on the opening day of school.

Nine months have gone quickly, and hopefully they have been enjoyable and productive for you as you have reached your goal of high school graduation.

It is an exciting time of year, not only for you and your classmates but also for the faculty who have worked with you and watched you succeed in the many endeavors you have undertaken in the past four years. It is a time of excitement because of the new experiences that lie ahead for you, and it is also a time of reflection as you remember your experiences in the Region #10 schools. I urge you to take time to thank a teacher, secretary, custodian, nurse, and a cafeteria employee for the positive influence they have had in your success at Lewis Mills. The most important part of any school is the people who occupy it, including yourselves. We are proud of you and the staff.

We believe we have offered you a quality education and that you are well prepared for college, the military services, or your particular choice of career.

We welcome your suggestions on ways to improve our school community and hope that you will visit or write us no matter how far you are from the towns of Burlington and Harwinton.

I have been particularily appreciative of the responsibility, attitude, and leadership you have displayed during your senior year. I feel most fortunate to have been your principal during this year. You have been a credit to your family, school, and community during the past four years.

Please allow me to be among the first to congratulate you on graduating from Lewis S. Mills High School and wish you success, happiness, and good health in the years ahead.

Laughing, dancing . . . Kathy.

Kathy,

Splashing through the streams,
Full of happy dreams,
